

Emergency Nursing Research Journey

Points of entry for the student and early-career emergency nurse

Why Become a Researcher?

As an association that generates original research in emergency nursing, ENA® is influential at driving improvements in patient care, fostering innovation, and advancing the profession. Research empowers nurses to deliver high-quality, evidence-based care. Research is its own career path and an important element to countless other opportunities in emergency nursing. ENA and the ENA Foundation* can support your journey.

APPLY

Emergency Nurse Diverse Voices Research Fellowship (ENDVR)

First-time researchers from underrepresented communities receive up to two years of mentorship and ENA Foundation support, including research project funding up to $500.

APPLY

Conference Scholarships (Global/U.S. Applicants)

Get your registration fee covered for ENA's annual education and networking conference designed for your career advancement.

WORK

Brainstorming and Planning

Create new or build on current research projects then outline and develop your ePoster or educational session for presentation to your peers.

APPLY

Research & Implementation Grant

Whether you're just getting started or have a firm grasp on the research process, get $500-30,000 in funding that will take your project to the top.

ATTEND

Emergency Nursing Annual Conference

Attend for the professional development and network with potential project partners, mentors and references.

SUBMIT

ENA Call for Content

Showcase your groundbreaking research project as an ePoster presenter and/or educational session speaker at next year's annual conference.

SUBMIT

Publications

Submit your work for publication in the Journal of Emergency Nursing and pitch a story of the scope and impact of your research to ENA Connection.

JOIN

Community

Become part of the ENA Connect Research Community where you can connect with leaders in research, learn about submission and volunteer opportunities and more.

Scan the QR code or visit ena.org/enau/research to start your journey.

ENA
EMERGENCY NURSES
ASSOCIATION

ENA
FOUNDATION

*ENA Foundation — Established in 1991, the ENA Foundation is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization with a mission to provide educational scholarships and research grants in the discipline of emergency nursing.