

Crisis Response Team Award

Description

This award recognizes an emergency department health care team who has risen above-and-beyond to achieve ENA's mission to advance excellence in emergency nursing by responding to the challenges of working during a crisis situation (natural or man-made disasters; public health crises).

Requirements

- Self-nominations are allowed
 - If self-nominating, nominator / nominee must be an ENA member
- If nominating someone else, one Team member must be an ENA member
- Two narrative statements (each addressing four separate criteria listed below) written by two different individuals. One narrative must be written by the Nominator
- CV / Resume summary of the ENA member on the Team (please see page 2 in the Achievement Awards Handbook on the Awards webpage for a list of specific information needed)

Narrative Statements / Criteria

Please do not include the name of the Team or any identifying information in the narrative statements.

- Each response must be limited to a maximum of 200 words.
- Develop responses in a word processing program such as Microsoft Word, use the WORD COUNT checker to ensure your responses are limited to 200 words, as well as the spell-check option. Then copy and paste responses into the online nomination form.

Narrative statements should address each criterion listed below:

1. A description of how the Team used innovative ideas and practices to make positive impacts on patients, patients' families, or staff in response to the crisis situation.
2. A description of how the Team demonstrated advocacy for patients, or patients' families' well-being.
3. A description of how members of the Team implemented well-being initiatives to promote and support self-care.
4. A description of evidence-based resources (external, internal, unique educational tools, pre-existing resources/education materials) utilized to communicate an educational plan to patients, patients' families, or staff to increase safety and awareness of the crisis situation. For example: in-services, computer-based training, handouts, etc.
