

Gail P. Lenehan Advocacy Award

Description

This award recognizes a nurse who has had a positive impact on emergency nurses through a sustained commitment of advocacy for emergency nurses' well-being and welfare or the welfare of vulnerable populations.

Requirements

- Nominee must be an ENA member.
- Nominator must be an ENA member.
- Two narrative statements (addressing three separate criteria listed below) written by two different individuals. One narrative must be written by the Nominator.
- CV / Resume summary of the Nominee (please see page 2 in the Achievement Awards Handbook for a list of specific information needed).

To save time in preparing for EN24: in case your nominee receives the award, if possible, please email the nominee's current headshot photo, 8x10, high resolution/300 dpi (no iPhone/smartphone photos) to AnnualAwards@ena.org. However, this is not mandatory.

Narrative Statements / Criteria

Please do not include the name of the nominee in the narrative statements.

- Each response must be limited to a maximum of 200 words.
- Develop responses in a word processing program such as Microsoft Word, use the WORD COUNT checker to ensure your responses are limited to 200 words, as well as the spell-check option. Then copy and paste responses into the online nomination form.

Narrative statements should address each criterion listed below:

1. A description of the extent and significance of the nominee's involvement in documented advocacy activities/efforts, outside of paid work time, related to emergency nursing or vulnerable populations.
2. A summary of the specific outcomes or impact that resulted from these activities.
3. A description of the enduring nature of the nominee's activities.
