Leaders will be challenged to create a list of dreams for their personal and professional life; identify only those that would lead to real success and fulfillment in their life. Explore the difficulty in creating such a list and the benefits of taking the time, building the relationships, establishing the connection and empowering those around them. It is proven that by encouraging others to be successful that we are free to enjoy amazing success.

Clearly identifying, mapping out, and chasing our dreams are necessary steps in discovering passion and fulfilling potential. Perhaps counter intuitively, though, it is only when we understand that we have the opportunity to encourage others to identify, map out, and actualize their dreams that we create the opportunity to be truly successful.
