Emergency Nurses Week™
October 8-14, 2017

Emergency Nurses Day®
Wednesday, October 11, 2017
DON’T MISS ANY OF THE LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES AT EMERGENCY NURSING 2017

MCI Drills. Simulations. SIM Wars Competitions. High TechED Products. Cadaver and Ultrasound Labs. You’re at the biggest and most exciting conference dedicated to emergency nursing. Don’t miss any of it:

• More than 150 sessions ranging from pediatrics and geriatrics, to leadership, trauma, and more

• Interactive demonstrations, hands-on learning labs, and Mass Casualty Incident (MCI) Training

• AdvancED, a 6-bed area with interactive manikin simulation exercises, and a SIM Wars friendly competition against your peers

• The NEW TECHED area, a close-up look at the newest and most advanced high-tech emergency care products

• Electronic Posters (ePosters), featuring the latest emergency nursing research and evidence-based practice

• Cadaver and Ultrasound hands-on labs

• ED Talks, short, informative talks designed to educate nurses about new products and services that can enhance your ED

• Networking, networking, and more networking...

The best way to navigate is by downloading the Emergency Nursing 2017 conference app! This all-new app is available for both Android and iOS. Use it to view your session information, access ePosters, locate exhibitors, and download session handouts. Find it on the Google and Apple app stores.
SEE YOU ON THE ENA WAY

Follow the arrows on the Exhibit Hall floor and head towards ENA Way, where you will find:

• ENA Marketplace, filled with ENA educational products and merchandise

• ENA Foundation, where you can donate to help nurses further their education, or learn about how to apply for a scholarship

• ENA LEARN kiosk, where you can learn about and purchase ENA digital educational products

And don’t miss these:

• ENA Career Wellness, hosting a professional headshot photo lounge and job center

• The ENA Education Booth

• The Journal of Emergency Nursing Booth

• The Academy of Emergency Nursing Booth

GET SOCIAL!

We just re-launched our Instagram account, @ENAorg, and want to see photos of you in action at Emergency Nursing 2017. Use the hashtag #ENA17 on your posts, and keep an eye out for the Instagram signs around conference.

Registered attendees can earn up to 42 contact hours, depending on sessions attended, at Emergency Nursing 2017. Contact hours are earned through attendance at Presessions, Opening, General, and Closing sessions, Anita Dorr Memorial Lecture and Luncheon, Concurrent sessions, Fast Track sessions, ePoster sessions, and Deep Dive sessions.

ACCREDITATION

The Emergency Nurses Association is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation.

The Emergency Nurses Association is approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider Number CEP #2322.

In compliance with ANCC continuing nursing education requirements, all Education Planning Committee members, presenters, faculty, authors, and content reviewers must disclose the presence or absence of any financial or other associations with the manufacturers of commercial products, suppliers of commercial services, or commercial supporters in relation to the educational activity. Learners will be informed if a commercial interest has provided financial or in-kind support for the educational activity, including how content integrity is maintained and bias prevented.

PREREGISTRATION REQUIRED

All education sessions require preregistration, and attendee badges will be scanned at all sessions to confirm registration. Seats are limited, so be sure to preregister for sessions via the Emergency Nursing 2017 app. Walk-ups are welcome and will be accommodated as space allows — check with registration.
COURSE TICKETS AND CLASSROOM SEATING
Tickets may be required for some courses, which may require an extra fee. If a ticket or extra fee is required, it will be noted in the course description. All other courses require preregistration and are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

DEEP DIVE SESSIONS
Experience in-depth exploration of a topic that can’t be covered in a traditional course length. Take advantage of this unique opportunity to expand your knowledge in an extended, interactive session format. The Deep Dive format requires no additional fee, but due to limited capacity, preregistration is required.

FAST TRACK SESSIONS
These 30-minute sessions provide attendees the opportunity to hear the latest, need-to-know, cutting-edge information in a fast-paced presentation.

ADVANCED CLINICAL SESSIONS
ENA offers Advanced Clinical sessions for experienced emergency nurses seeking more in-depth education.

ADVANCED PRACTICE SESSIONS
ENA has created a focus area specifically designed to provide advanced practice nurses and more experienced emergency nurses with progressive clinical information and diagnostic education.

ADVANCING PRACTICE THROUGH ePOSTER SESSIONS
Research and evidence-based practice ePosters are presented during Emergency Nursing 2017. Take advantage of this opportunity to review current studies on relevant emergency nursing topics. ePosters are available for viewing all day Thursday through Saturday in the second floor atrium. Posters are also available for viewing via the conference app. Researchers will be present to discuss their studies at specified times.
COURSE CONTENT
ENA strives to provide educational opportunities that reflect various aspects and opinions to help nurses make informed decisions about pertinent issues affecting emergency nursing. Comments, opinions, and/or recommendations expressed by the faculty in ENA programs, or by authors of printed and/or visual materials distributed as part of ENA programs, are not necessarily reviewed nor endorsed by the Association. Faculty and program content are subject to change at any time.

A select number of education sessions will repeat throughout Emergency Nursing 2017. Look for the REPEAT icon to see when a session repeats.

SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION
To successfully complete the educational requirements of Emergency Nursing 2017, registered attendees will be required to:

- Fully attend sessions
- Complete an evaluation regarding the faculty presentation and the success of the course within 30 days when you record your contact hours

WHAT ARE CONTINUING EDUCATION RECOGNITION POINTS (CERPs)?
CERPs stands for continuing education recognition points. ENA-issued CERPs are not affiliated with, or accredited by, any other nursing organization. ENA CERP designation signifies the session has been granted recognition of content that offers relevant information of value to emergency nursing. BCEN accepts CERPs for recertification if the content is a minimum of 60 minutes. Accrual of CERP content from multiple conference presentations 60 minutes or longer is allowed by BCEN. For example, attendance at two different 30-minute sessions could accrue to the minimum required 60 minutes.

Please check the BCEN website for current CERP acceptance information. ENA does not guarantee that other organizations, institutions, certification bodies, accreditation agencies, or state boards of nursing will accept CERPs from ENA CERP-designated sessions.
Visit the ENA Way and Information Center, two convenient locations in and out of the Exhibit Hall.

- SHOP Marketplace for books and merchandise, plus receive exclusive onsite discounts
- GIVE to the ENA Foundation to support the education and professional development of emergency nurses
- LEARN about the newest digital courses and resources ENA has to offer at the ENA LEARN kiosk

ENA is entering autumn with a flourish! This fall, new and revised educational content will keep you up to date on the best practices in the ED—from pediatric behavioral health to advanced practice in trauma.

COMING SOON:

Emergency Department Manager’s Survival Guide
Fifty concise chapters of must-know information—from operations to delegation to ordering supplies to professional development—to help new ED managers hit the ground running.

Emergency Nursing Scope and Standards of Practice, 2nd Edition

Course in Advanced Trauma Nursing CATN
The advanced online course in trauma care for those who’ve completed other trauma courses. In this expanded course, eight vivid case scenarios make you part of a fast-paced trauma care environment, quickly making decisions and learning from the outcomes.

Emergency Nursing Core Curriculum, 7th Edition
A clear, concise, and thorough overview of emergency nursing—and an invaluable resource for certification review. This new edition includes updated information about insulin types, cancer guidelines, diabetes, HIPAA information, and more.

NOW AVAILABLE!

Management of Pediatric Behavioral Health Disorders in the ED
The online pediatric behavior health course specifically for ED nurses. Designed to enhance your ability to quickly assess and treat young patients, the course covers initial assessment, rapport, anxiety management, and more for school-age and adolescent patients.

Implementation of AccuCath/Ultrasound-Guided Peripheral IV Insertion in the ED

September 14 | 11:30 AM | Exhibit Hall Advanced ED Space

The ED setting requires prompt placement of peripheral access for many patients needing treatment. The inability to gain PIV access can pose many challenges and may necessitate advanced technologies for IV placement. Cheryl Campos, RN, MSN (ED Nurse Educator for Salinas Valley Memorial Hospital) will discuss the conception and implementation of a vascular access program in their ED utilizing ultrasound and the AccuCath™ guidewire assisted catheter.

Objectives
1. Review current literature regarding use of ultrasound and a guidewire assisted peripheral IV for catheter insertion.
2. Describe the conceptualization of an ultrasound guided peripheral IV program in the ED
3. Discuss data collection performed and training model implemented
4. Evaluate steps Salinas Valley implemented to sustain the program

Cheryl Campos
MSN, RN-BC, CEN, Emergency Department Nurse Educator, Salinas Valley Memorial Hospital, Salinas, California

Smart companies know healthy employees cost less. Consider that the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention puts a $3,391 price tag on each employee who smokes. That’s why corporate wellness programs continue to gain popularity in attempts to chip away at rising healthcare and insurance costs.

Yet leaders who have tried to move the needle on workplace wellness by changing employee behavior through externally driven change—nagging, bribing, penalizing—know these tactics rarely work.

If organizations depend on human change to create a healthier workforce, then there must be a better way to get there from here. New research shows there is. This session will uncover a teachable, scalable method for driving individual behavior change. Come hear about the best social science research from the past 50 years with a study of more than 5,000 people attempting to overcome career and personal challenges. When employees have the skills and support needed to succeed at change, an organization becomes 10 times more likely to achieve its wellness goals.

- Describe the principles of self-directed change
- Diagnose what’s keeping colleagues—or even you—stuck in bad habits and create change plans that lead to healthier behaviors
- Use six sources of influence to make individual change inevitable

Is Your ED Patient-Flow Stuck?

AcelRx Pharmaceuticals, Inc.
Scientific Symposium
Friday, September 15th, 12:00-1:00pm
Marriott St. Louis Grand Hotel
Landmark Ballroom Salon 1-4

You’re invited...

Lunch will be provided

It is our pleasure to invite you to join us for the symposium “Is Your ED Patient-Flow Stuck?”

Our distinguished faculty will lead us through a program focused on pain management in the ED and its impact on patient flow:

- Rosemary Polomano, PhD, RN, FAAN Associate Dean for Practice, University of Pennsylvania School of Nursing
- JohnRey Hassan, RN Critical Care Transport Program Manager, American Medical Response and Flight Nurse with REACH Air Medical Services
- Karen DiDonato, MSN, RN Executive Director, Medical Affairs, AcelRx Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

We look forward to seeing you there and discussing the evolution of pain management in the ED with our experts.
Staff Duress Alarm Systems

A “good buddy” NOT “Big Brother”

Your colleagues know where you are when you decide you need their help.

INSTANT alarm does not track you all the time.
