

Nursing Education Award

Description

This award recognizes a nurse who has made significant contributions to the education of colleagues, nursing students, EMS personnel, patients/families and/or the community through the publication of articles, formal or informal courses, or the development of a specific emergency nursing program or curriculum.

Requirements

- Nominee must be an ENA member.
- Nominator must be an ENA member.
- Two narrative statements (each addressing three separate criteria listed below) written by two different individuals. One narrative must be written by the Nominator.
- CV / Resume summary of the Nominee (please see page 2 in the Achievement Awards Handbook for a list of specific information needed).

To save time in preparing for EN24: in case your nominee receives the award, if possible, please email the nominee's current headshot photo, 8x10, high resolution/300 dpi (no iPhone/smartphone photos) to AnnualAwards@ena.org. However, this is not mandatory.

Narrative Statements / Criteria

Please do not include the name of the nominee in the narrative statements.

- Each response must be limited to a maximum of 200 words.
- Develop responses in a word processing program such as Microsoft Word, use the WORD COUNT checker to ensure your responses are limited to 200 words, as well as the spell-check option. Then copy and paste responses into the online nomination form.

Narrative statements should address each criterion listed below:

1. A description of how the nominee:
 - a) demonstrates education competence as a mentor, preceptor, resource, or instructor in programs for emergency nurses, EMS teams or other health care professionals.

OR

 - b) developed or implemented educational programs, especially those that are innovative in nature, for nursing students and/or patients and their families.
2. A summary of the specific situations where the nominee has demonstrated nursing expertise through publications or significant educational projects.
3. A description of how the nominee participated in the development or implementation of educational programs related to the specialty of emergency care.
