Emergency Nurses Association (ENA), Schaumburg, IL
(www.ena.org)

Search is under way for the Chief Clinical Officer of the Emergency Nurses Association (ENA), located in Schaumburg, IL, with approximately 115 staff and an operating budget of $30 million. ENA is the premier professional nursing association dedicated to defining the future of emergency nursing through advocacy, education, research, innovation, and leadership. Founded in 1970, ENA has proven to be an indispensable resource to the global emergency nursing community. With more than 50,000 members worldwide, ENA advocates for patient safety, develops industry-leading practice standards and guidelines, and guides emergency healthcare public policy. ENA members have expertise in triage, patient care, disaster preparedness, and all aspects of emergency care.

ENA is seeking a collaborative and skilled nurse executive. The Chief Clinical Officer is responsible for expanding ENA's clinical expertise, voice and impact, and identifying opportunities, partnerships, programs and other initiatives that advance and address needs in emergency nursing and emergency care. The Chief Clinical Officer provides strategic leadership for ENA's research and practice excellence teams and clinical insight and expertise across the association. This position plays a key strategic role in the growth of the Association through participation in the ENA Senior Leadership Team and in collaboration with the ENA Board of Directors and other key stakeholders.

Candidates must have a minimum of ten years of demonstrated leadership experience in emergency nursing; experience in a senior level management position with responsibility over multidisciplinary functions; A master's degree in nursing, health care, public health or related field and RN license is required; professional certification within emergency nursing is highly desired.

A full position profile will be made available soon. Application deadline: 12/1/2023
