

As National Hispanic Heritage Month wraps up, ENA hopes you had an opportunity to learn more about the Hispanic community. Here is a small collection of resources to further your learning and celebration of National Hispanic Heritage Month.

- **I Am La Cultura** – Penguin Random House publishing celebrated Latinx and Hispanic voices who are shaping today’s culture, from music to politics and everything in between. Learn more via social media by searching #IAmLaCultura.
- **Generating Engagement and New Initiatives for All Latinos** – Check out this resource with the terms best used to describe specific identities including Hispanic, Chicago/Chicana, Latino/Latina or Latinx.
- **National Hispanic Heritage Month website** – The Library of Congress, National Archives and Records Administration, National Endowment for the Humanities, National Gallery of Art, National Park Service, Smithsonian Institution and United States Holocaust Memorial Museum join in paying tribute to the generations of Hispanic Americans who have positively influenced and enriched our nation and society.