

June 30 wraps up Pride Month and ENA hopes that you had an opportunity to connect with someone in the LGBTQIA+ community. ENA has compiled a small collection of resources related to Pride and the LGBTQIA+ population.

- Trevor Project – A non-profit organization that provides crisis support services for LGBTQIA+ youth at risk for suicide. The organization offers phone, text and chat options for youths in crisis to connect with trained specialists.
- UC Davis LGBTQIA Resource Center – UC Davis has filled a resource center with important information to learn about lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, intersex and asexual communities and the issues impacting these communities.
- Gender Revolution – A Journey with Katie Couric – A National Geographic documentary that explores the rapidly evolving complexities of gender identity.
