

Whether you enjoy reading, listening to music or podcasts, or watching movies, we hope you find a resource that is of interest and that you find joy in your cultural awareness journey.

- **Celebrating Female Leaders** – To mark the occasion of Women’s History Month – one year into the pandemic – The Washington Post gathered stories of women who have faced challenges and triumphed throughout the past year.
- **Women in leadership: Achieving an equal future in a COVID-19 world** – The United Nation’s article highlights the International Women’s Day theme and looks to gender equality by 2030.
- **International Women’s Day** – The website dedicated to supporting and celebrating women encourages everyone to participate by posting photos with #ChooseToChallenge.
- **TEDxTulsaCC Glenna Cooper** – Deaf advocate and Assistant Professor and Department Chair for American Sign Language, English As Second Language, and World Language at Tulsa Community College Glenna Cooper shares her story in this TEDx Talk. Glenna shares insights into Deaf culture and educates viewers on a movement pairing Deaf with hearing interpreters. She was one of a few Deaf nationally certified instructors to provide Deaf Culture training to emergency responders in 40 states.
- **Disclosure** – This Netflix documentary from 2020 features leading trans creatives and thinkers. They share heartfelt perspectives and provide an analysis about Hollywood’s impact on the trans community.