Travel Insurance
Comprehensive trip insurance is strongly recommended. It includes: Trip Cancellation, Trip Interruption, Travel Delay, Baggage & Personal Effects, Baggage Delay, Medical or Dental Expense, Emergency Medical Transportation, Travel Accident Death & 24-hour Emergency Assistance. All coverages are subject to policy conditions, exclusions & limitations. For additional information go to our website, www.fellowship.com & click on insurance.

Itinerary
This itinerary was correct at the time of printing. However, we reserve the right to modify it if major airline schedule changes dictate. Hotels listed are subject to confirmation & change. In all cases, however, we’ll try to preserve the quality of what is presented in text.

Liability & Responsibility
The Emergency Nurses Association & Fellowship Travel International Inc, a Virginia Corporation, also known as FTI, are responsible to you in making arrangements for the travel & tour services offered in this brochure, including transportation, sightseeing, & hotel accommodations. The carriers, hotels, & other suppliers providing the actual services are independent contractors & are not agents, employees, or servants of, or joint ventures with FTI. All certificates & other travel documents for services issued by FTI are subject to the terms & conditions specified by the supplier & to the laws of the countries in which the services are supplied & who are the actual providers of the services. A travel Insurance brochure will be given to you on receipt of your registration. You are strongly urged to consider travel insurance.

Baggage
One checked bag 23kg (50lbs) is suggested for International Travel due to limited storage on coaches & for porterage.
Note: Airlines are in the process of changing baggage allowances. Updated requirements can be found on the airline’s website. There may be a charge for a second piece of checked luggage as well as additional fees for porterage at airports & hotels. We suggest traveling as light as possible.

Amsterdam
Optional Excursion: Canal Cruise
This hour-long cruise takes you through the unique UNESCO World Heritage-listed canal district of Amsterdam, giving you the opportunity to take in many of the historic sights of the city center.

Optional Excursion: Zaans-Schans, Volendam & Edam:
Visit the open-air museum in Zaans-Schans where you’ll see a variety of windmills that can also be visited from the inside (optional). Look over the clog-makers shoulders or buy fresh Dutch cheese. Continue on to Volendam on the Ijsselmeer. Volendam is a picturesque fishing village with the typical Dutch houses, canals & drawbridges. After a short stay, make your way to Edam. Just like Alkmaar, Edam also enjoys the international reputation as a cheese town. It is also one of the most well-preserved cities of the former Zuiderzee.

Optional Excursion: Kinderdijk, Delft & Gouda:
Visit Kinderdijk - the so-called “mill road”. The windmills of Kinderdijk are a UNESCO World Heritage Site. There are two large groups of 8 mills in the east & 8 mills in the southeast of the village. One of the mills can also be visited from the inside (optional). Afterward, make your way to Delft. Explore the wonderful old town with its historical buildings & dozens of idyllic bridges & canals. Not to be missed: a visit of a porcelain manufactory (optional), where the famous “Delft Blue” is produced. In the early afternoon continue on to Gouda, the city of cheese, syrup wafers & the candles, but also the city of the pipes of Gouda, the famous “Gouda pipe”.
