

2019 Conference Scholarship Application Eligibility and Submission Procedures

Thank you for your interest in the ENA Foundation conference scholarship program. The mission of the ENA Foundation is to provide educational scholarships and research grants in the discipline of emergency nursing.

The ENA Foundation's Conference Scholarship provides funding for recipients to attend ENA's annual conference, Emergency Nursing 2019. The conference will take place in Austin, Texas on September 29 - October 2, 2019. Conference Scholarships will provide funding for conference registration fees ($520 early-bird registration member rate) for recipients.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE IS MAY 15, 2019 - 12:00 pm CDT

PLEASE READ ALL ELIGIBILITY AND SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS BEFORE APPLYING.
TO BEGIN THE APPLICATION PROCESS YOU MUST CREATE AN ACCOUNT.

Eligibility Requirements for ALL Scholarships:

- Applicants must be an ENA member in good standing prior to applying
- Previous conference scholarship recipients are ineligible to reapply
- Members already receiving funding from national associations, state councils or chapters are ineligible
- ENA members having served in the immediate past three (3) years on the ENA Board of Directors, ENA Foundation Board of Trustees, or the ENA Foundation Scholarship Selection Committee are ineligible to apply

Application Submission Instructions:

Step 1: Visit <https://ena.fluidreview.com/> and Create an Account

Step 2: Complete your Conference Scholarship Application

Step 3: Submit your application

Your application is not complete until submitted.

Application Criteria and Notification:

Due to the volume of applications received and available funding, only a select number of applicants will receive awards waiving their conference registration fee of $520. All applicants will be notified of selection via email after June 30th. Candidates who are not selected will still have until July 31, 2019 to register for the Annual Conference at the early-bird registration member rate of $520, after which the registration cost will increase.

The application does not require any specific documents, however, be prepared to provide the following information: Member number; join date; previous attendance at an ENA conference; participation as Conference faculty; statements explaining how you will benefit from attending the Conference and your financial need for a scholarship.

Not an ENA Member? Join now and become eligible to apply for a scholarship!
<https://www.ena.org/membership/membership-options>

Please contact the ENA Foundation at (847) 460-4100 or by e-mail at ENA.Foundation@ena.org if you have any questions.