

1. Who would benefit from taking ENA's CEN Online Review?

The course is designed for experienced emergency nurses who have a recommended minimum of two years of ED experience, CENs who need to recertify, or emergency nurses who want to improve their score. For emergency departments seeking Lantern recognition or hospitals seeking Magnet designation, a higher percentage of certified nurses will make your application more attractive.

2. How many contact hours are available?

There are 15 contact hours for completing all 12 modules.

3. What distinguishes ENA's CEN Online Review from other CEN review courses?

ENA's CEN Online Review was developed by a team of ENA members and emergency nursing experts who are all certified and practicing in emergency care. Their collective expertise represents the best in current, evidence-based practice.

4. What's new with this version of ENA's CEN Online Review?

This latest edition of ENA's CEN Online Review has many enhancements including a mobile-friendly platform, interactive learning with guided videos to facilitate self-paced learning, immediate answers and rationales to multiple choice questions, more than 200 pages of downloadable review handouts, and more.

5. Will I still be able to use ENA's new CEN Online Review if I purchased the original?

Individual learners or organizations that purchased CEN Online review prior to Jan. 1, 2016 are encouraged to buy the 2nd edition once their current license and materials expire on Jan. 31, 2017. Those that purchased CEN Online review after Jan. 1, 2016 will also have current license and materials expire on Jan. 31, 2017— plus, they will have any unassigned licenses automatically upgrade to the new edition.

6. Once I have purchased ENA's CEN Online Review, how long do I have to complete the course?

Credit will be available through Aug. 4, 2018. Learners will have unlimited access to the modules during that time.

7. Does ENA's CEN Online Review offer additional classroom seminars?

ENA's CEN Online Review is an online product only. However, we encourage learners to reach out and seek advice from fellow CEN Online Review learners at either ENA's CEN Online Review Facebook page or ENA Connect, ENA's new online community for ENA members to engage with colleagues on any issue including professional development and continuing education.

8. Who can I contact for assistance with registration or technical issues when taking the online course?

For registration and/or technical issues, course learners can contact elarning@ena.org or call 847.460.4073. For questions regarding clinical content, learners can contact ENA's education team at education@ena.org or 847.460.4123, M–F between 8:30 am and 5:00 pm, CST.

9. What are the system requirements?

This course requires Adobe Flash Player 10.3 or later, compatible with most browsers. Find a complete list of browsers here. Adobe Reader is also required. Please note while CEN Online Review is mobile and tablet friendly, there is no mobile app available for downloading.

10. How much does it cost to purchase ENA's CEN Online Review?

Individual Pricing: $200 Non-members $160 Members

Group Pricing: $1,000 for 10-pack of licenses