

ENA is committed to you!

Who is ENA?

The Emergency Nurses Association is a professional organization dedicated to defining the future of emergency nursing.

- A community of nearly 45,000 members representing the specialty of emergency nursing
- An advocate for patient safety and excellence in emergency nursing practice
- A provider of education, research & consultation

ENA Founders

ENA was founded by emergency nurses, for emergency nurses.

- Originally the Emergency Department Nurses Association (EDNA)
- Founded in 1970 by Anita Dorr and Judith Kelleher
- In 1985, name was changed to Emergency Nurses Association (ENA)
- Grown into the largest voluntary association dedicated to the education and support of emergency nurses
- Legacy continues through ENA's mission to advocate for patient safety and excellence in emergency nursing practice

What Does ENA Do?

How ENA Can Help You...

- Grow your knowledge
- Connect with your peers
- Advocate for the profession

... Grow Your Knowledge

ENA provides a variety of nursing education opportunities to help you elevate your career including:

- Online and on-demand education on topics relevant to your practice developed by nurses
- Regional and national conferences for an in-depth learning experience
- Specialized educational verification courses including Trauma Nursing Core Course and Emergency Nursing Pediatric Course
- Peer-reviewed research published in the Journal of Emergency Nursing

... Connect With Peers

Nurses are busy, so ENA provides a variety of ways you can interact with nearly 45,000 peers including:

- ENA CONNECT – a members-only online community to network, share tips, ask questions, and more
- State councils and local chapters – a way to connect with ENA members in your area
- National and regional conferences – in-person opportunities to learn and network with peers across the country

... Advocate For The Profession

ENA works tirelessly to advocate for emergency nurses and their practice. You can strengthen the association's voice while ENA:

- Builds bridges within the nursing community
- Pushes for government support to address workplace violence and other issues affecting ED nurses
- Provides state level support to seek opportunities for members to influence the lawmaking process

You have the power to get involved and make a difference in your profession!

How Does ENA Do It?

Through the expertise of emergency nurses just like you!

30+ volunteer committees and work groups provide quality, evidence-based emergency nursing education and resources to help you stay committed to care.
