WHY DID ENA INCREASE ITS ANNUAL CONFERENCE REGISTRATION FEES RATES?

ENA's decision to raise registration rates for its annual conference for the first time reflects not only the increased cost associated with operating the event, but also the expanded offerings and experiences ENA delivers each year to conference attendees. As the value of the event has increased in the last 10 years, so has the expense to do so.

ENA remains committed to providing Emergency Nursing 2025 attendees with an outstanding experience in New Orleans.

WHERE WILL THE EVENT BE HELD?

Emergency Nursing 2025 will be held at the New Orleans Ernest N. Morial Convention Center – 900 Convention Center Blvd. – and the Hilton New Orleans Riverside – 2 Poydras St., New Orleans. Sleeping rooms will be available at a number of hotels close to the convention center and Hilton.

Business casual means you should wear comfortable yet polished clothing and comfortable shoes.

HOW CAN I BECOME AN EXHIBITOR?

ENA offers several different exhibitor and sponsorship opportunities at Emergency Nursing 2025. Exhibitor information can be found on the Exhibit page. You can also email the exhibit sales team at enaexhibit@smithbucklin.com.

WHAT IS A GUEST REGISTRATION? WHO IS IT FOR?

Guest registrations can only be purchased in addition to a full registration. All guests will be identified with a guest name badge. A guest is defined as a spouse or significant other, friend or relative who is not an ENA member or is not qualified to become a member. If you would like to bring a guest, please provide their name and pay their registration fee during your online registration process. Guest registrations are not eligible to claim CNE credit. A guest registration includes admission to the Experience Hall, Thursday Opening Session and "Impact: An ENA Celebration" session on Saturday. Guests may also attend open evening receptions. Please note: Any "invite only" or "closed" receptions are not included. Guest registrations do not include Pre-Conference Workshops or any educational sessions.

WHAT IS THE REGISTRATION CANCELLATION POLICY?

CANCELLATION POLICY: Requests for cancellations or refunds must be submitted in writing on or before Aug. 1 by emailing ena@csreg.zohodesk.com. All requests are subject to a $50 administrative fee on or before Aug. 1. Refund requests approved after Aug. 1 are subject to a $100 administrative fee. Refunds will be processed in the name of the original payer within 60 days after the initial request is received. All conference registrations are non-transferable. Refunds are not given after Aug. 1, and ENA will not reimburse you if you do not attend.

Non-receipt of a confirmation notice before the meeting is not justification for seeking a refund. If you wish to defer your registration payment to Emergency Nursing 2026, it must be submitted in writing on or before Aug. 1. Deferred registrations will not be eligible for refunds later. Emergency Nursing 2025 registrants who are approved for a deferral request will be allowed to defer for only one year. The refund and cancellation policy will not be waived.

NON-REFUNDABLE POLICY: Donations to the ENA Foundation, additional add-on items including t-shirt orders, special events or educational sessions with a fee are non-refundable at any time.

ADD-ON TICKET POLICY: You must be registered for Emergency Nursing 2025 to purchase registration add-on items or special event or educational session tickets. Ticketed educational sessions that are eligible for CNE hours cannot overlap. All add-on tickets are non-transferable.

PLEASE NOTE: ENA reserves the right to modify, cancel or reschedule all activities associated with this event due to unforeseen circumstances. In such cases, registrants will be notified. These policies apply to all types of registration, including guest registrations.

Canceling your conference registration will not automatically cancel your hotel reservations. Any costs incurred by the Emergency Nursing 2025 registrant, such as hotel cancellation, airline penalties or other travel costs are the responsibility of the registrant. Registration rates and fees and policies are subject to change at the discretion of ENA.

CAN I BRING MY CHILD TO THE CONFERENCE?

CHILD ATTENDANCE POLICY: This event is not recommended for children 10 years old or younger. ENA's policies regarding children of different age groups are as follows:

A conference guest fee is required for all children over the age of 16 in order to attend the event. The guest fee must be equal in value to that paid by the child's attending parent or guardian. FOR EXAMPLE: If you have a paid full conference registration and want to bring a child, the child must also have a paid guest registration at the same rate.

Infants – 1 year old or younger: Although children one year old or younger are strongly discouraged from attending, exceptions can be made. In such cases, a waiver must be signed for each child. The adult accompanying them will have a sticker placed on their badge for each child to confirm waiver compliance. The adult with this badge must be with the children at all times. Children who are one year old or younger are not permitted within the Experience Hall or at any events without the accompanying adult who signed the waiver. Children under one year old must be carried in a sling or baby carrier at all times. To ensure safety, strollers are strictly prohibited and will not be allowed under any circumstances.

Children 10 years old or younger: Children younger than 10 years old are strongly discouraged from attending, although exceptions can be made. In such cases, the event attendee must sign a waiver for each child younger than 10 years old. The adult accompanying the child will have sticker placed on their event badge to confirm waiver compliance. The adult with this badge must be with the children at all times. Children younger than 10 years old are not permitted in the Experience Hall without the accompanying adult who signed the waiver. Children in this age group are not permitted to purchase tickets for or attend any educational sessions or events that serve alcoholic beverages. There are no exceptions to this restriction.

Children 10 to 15 years old: Those in this age group who are children of conference attendee are welcome to attend. Proof of age such as a school ID, passport, birth certificate or similar documentation must be presented.

Children 16 to 18 years old: Children between the ages of 16 to 18 are welcome to attend, but are required to present either a state-issued ID, a passport or a school ID with a birth certificate.

WILL MEALS BE PROVIDED DURING EMERGENCY NURSING 2025?

Meals are provided in the Experience Hall include a boxed Lunch on Thursday, Sept. 18, and a continental breakfast on Friday, Sept. 19. Light refreshments will be provided during the Welcome Reception. Other affiliate or sponsored groups may choose to host plated meals or receptions for which registration must be purchased separately or are held as "invite only" events.
