Team Award

Description

This award recognizes a group or committee that has made a significant contribution toward achieving ENA's mission to lead the advancement of excellence and innovation in emergency nursing through research, education, resources, advocacy, or collaboration through the development of a sustainable project or program.

Award Requirements

- Self-nominations are allowed.
 - If nominating your Team, the Nominator must be an ENA member and nurse practicing in an emergency care setting
- If nominating someone else, one member of that Team must be an ENA member and nurse practicing in an emergency care setting
- Two narrative statements (each addressing three separate criteria listed below) written by two different individuals. One narrative must be written by the Nominator.
- CV / Resume summary of the ENA member on the Team (please see pages 2 and 3 in the Achievement Awards Handbook for a list of specific information needed).

Narrative Statements / Criteria

Please do not include the name of the Team or any identifying information in the narrative statements.

- Each response must be limited to a maximum of 200 words.
 - Develop responses in a word processing program such as Microsoft Word, use the WORD COUNT checker to ensure your responses are limited to 200 words, as well as the spell-check option. Then copy and paste responses into the online nomination form.

Narrative statements should address each criterion listed below:

1. Provide specific example(s) of the Team's project or program that has made a positive impact on patients or the specialty of emergency nursing.
2. Provide specific example(s) of how the Team's project or program will be sustained and how it will affect a community, regional, national or global initiative.
3. Provide specific example(s) of how the Team's project or program has made a significant contribution toward achieving ENA's mission to lead the advancement of excellence and innovation in emergency nursing through research, education, resources, advocacy, or collaboration.
